COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Legionnaires,

We don't have a meeting this month, so I hope everyone enjoys their holidays. Hope to see you all in January. I know that at this time of year, some people have some issues, please talk to someone if you are feeling down. We are all here to help.

If you made the Christmas party, I hope you had a good time. The gnomes are made by my Mom and Aunt.

Our January meeting will be the kick off of a new year of things to do. Hopefully we can have all of them this year and every one can participate in some way.

Thanks,

Commander Gary Schmude

CHAPLAINS CORNER

Greetings Everyone. The only sickness and distress notice I received since last newsletter was the Commander's mother (Mrs. David Schmude) which I sent a card out to her. Our prayers go out to her and anyone else going through some health problems.

If you know any member or their family who is going through any sickness or distress, please let me know.

God's Blessings to All of You. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Your Post 234 Chaplain

AUXILIARY PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Merry Christmas, ladies!

First off, I'd like to welcome our newest member, Judy Lloyd. We look forward to getting to know you, Judy, and thank you for joining the Omro Unit!

Our Christmas care packages were a success! We mailed out a total of 20 packages filled with homemade cookies, a Christmas gift, handmade cards for them to use as well as other miscellaneous items. Thank you to everyone who contributed and made this happen. It's the best way to spread Christmas cheer around the globe!

On that note, as happy as the holiday season is, this time of year is hard for many of us. Please take some time and reach out to those you know who may be struggling. The few minutes it takes to write them a card, call or email them may be just what they need to get through the day.

I wish you all a very merry Christmas and a bright, healthy 2022! I'll see you at the next Auxiliary meeting January 20th at 6:30pm in the dining room of Tanner's.

In the meantime, take care of yourselves and remember to always be kind -

Jodi Kallas, President

AUXILIARY CHAPLAIN

Even though the weather outside is cold, windy & snowy we have warm wishes to send to all our Legion Family brothers & sisters. We have birthday wishes for the following Auxiliary sisters: Diana Artz, Sophia Czaicki, & Cheryl Grabner. If you see them, please remember to wish each happy birthday!

I am aware of two of our Legion Family who are in need of prayers for healing: Carol Sanfilippo after her recent hospitalization & Dave Steinert as he seeks treatment for a painful leg. If you are aware of others, please share them with me.

As we enjoy our holiday festivities with family or friends, please remember those members of our active & Guard/Reserve military who are serving in locations all over the world.

*"God grant you the light in Christmas, which is faith;
the warmth of Christmas, which is love...
the belief in Christmas, which is truth;
the all of Christmas, which is Christ." --Wilda English*

God's peace to you,
Kathy Boettner, Chaplain
