APPENDIX A-CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS; DAUGHERTY-HAMILTON POST 234

SUBJECT: Standing Rules of Order No. 1-Outstanding Legionnaire of The Year

1. Purpose. The purpose of this Standing Rule of Order (SRO) is to establish the Post 234 Outstanding Legionnaire of the Year Award.
2. Recipient Criteria. The recipient shall be a Post 234 member in good standing for at least one year. The award will be based on the members' leadership, involvement in Post activities, and commitment to the four pillars of the Legion.
3. Award Presentation. This award shall be presented annually at the Post 234 Christmas Dinner. The recipient will be presented an individual plaque, and their name will be added to the Post 234 Legionnaire of the Year plaque.
4. Award Selection Process. A selection committee comprised of the past recipients of the Post 234 Legionnaire of the Year Award shall be convened to determine the next Legionnaire of the Year Award. The selection will be made by a two-third vote of the committee. The selection committee will convene at a date determined by the Post Commander no later than 60 days prior to the Annual Post 234 Christmas Dinner. The committee will preferably select one recipient for the award each year. In exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the committee a second recipient may be named.
5. Sixth District Legionnaire of The Year Nomination. The recipient of the Post 234 award will be the Post nomination for Sixth District Legionnaire of the Year in the following year. If a second recipient is named, the committee will select which recipient will be nominated for Sixth District Legionnaire of the Year.

SUBJECT: Standing Rules of Order No. 2-Patriot Award

6. Purpose: The purpose of this Standing Rule of Order (SRO) is to establish the Post 234 Patriot Award.
7. Recipient Criteria: The recipient shall be a non-Legionnaire. The recipient, by their deeds and actions, shall demonstrate an elevated level of patriotism, community spirit, and dedication to assisting Post 234 with its mission statement. The recipient shall demonstrate these qualities for a minimum of five years.
8. Award Presentation: This is not an annual award and will only be presented when a qualified recipient is selected. When a qualified recipient is selected, this award will be presented at the Post 234 Christmas Dinner. The recipient will be presented with an individual plaque and their name will be added to the Post 234 Patriot award plaque.
9. Award Selection Process: A selection committee comprised of the entire Post 234 Executive Committee shall convene annually to determine if any qualified and deserving recipients currently qualify for the Patriot Award. The members of the PEC will be notified at least 10 days prior to the meeting at which selection will take place. The selection of any recipient will be made by a two-third vote of the PEC present at the time of selection. The PEC selection committee will convene no later than 60 days prior to the Annual Post 234 Christmas Dinner.
